Design a sofa that fits perfectly into your home with the sofa concept CONSTRUCT

The modularity of the CONSTRUCT concept enables you to mix and match a living environment that suits your needs.

The module system is available with three different heights on the front panel which gives each one its own expression – from the lightweight Scandinavian model to the sofa in classic lounge style. In addition to this, you have the option of different armrests and legs, which makes it easy for you to create your own individual style.

Enhance the overall look with the fabric or leather type of your choice.
